

Workshop: Student Substance Abuse: Deterrence and Steps to Detection

When: October 23, 2012 from 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Where: NEWESD Conference Center

Cost: $55.00

8 Clock Hours and a certificate of completion will be available for attendees who attend the entire training.

Join us on October 23, 2012, for a 8 hour workshop on Student Substance Abuse: Deterrence and Steps to Detection presented by Officer Michael Graddon, Des Moines Police Department. This workshop is a comprehensive course intended to guide anyone working in an educational setting to deter and detect substance abuse. It is designed for teachers, administrators, coaches, counselors, school security officers, nurses, or any other personnel responsible for intervening when a student is suspected of alcohol or drug use. Training topics include:

- ✓ Alcohol and drug use today
- ✓ The importance of eye contact
- ✓ Vital signs and the effects of use on the body
- ✓ Medical issues resembling drug use
- ✓ Drug paraphernalia and hidden compartments
- ✓ Rules, regulations, contact, interviews, and interrogation
- ✓ Assessment procedures
- ✓ Simple sobriety tests
- ✓ Documentation
- ✓ Support systems
- ✓ Testing, equipment and resources

Space is limited for this workshop, so please RSVP soon.

Register for this workshop at <http://esd101.gosignmeup.com>.